

Major Keith Eury is a native of Concord, NC. He began his career in law enforcement in 1997. While attending college at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte, he completed an internship with the Concord Police Department. Shortly before graduation, he received a college scholarship from the NC Police Corps program and the Concord Police Department agreed to sponsor him. He was one of four people in the State of North Carolina chosen for this scholarship. After college graduation, he was hired at the department and attended Basic Law Enforcement Training at the NC Justice Academy in Salemburg, NC.

After completion of BLET, Major Eury was assigned to the patrol division where he served for nine years. In 2006, Eury transferred to the Criminal Investigations Division. Eury was promoted to sergeant in 2008 and remained in the Criminal Investigations Division until he was promoted to Captain in 2010, where he served as the Baker District Captain until 2016. Eury was promoted to the rank of Major in 2016 and he is currently in charge of the department's Operations Bureau, which includes the Airport Unit, Community Outreach and Education, Public Safety Unit, Criminal Investigations and Code Enforcement.

Major Eury was an original member of the department's Special Weapon and Tactics Team that was formed in 2002 and served on the team until 2010. In 2012, Major Eury was appointed commander of the unit and served in this role until April of 2015.

Major Eury's formal education consists of a Bachelor of Science Degree in Criminal Justice with a minor in Sociology from the University of North Carolina at Charlotte. He also possesses a Master of Business Administration Degree from Pfeiffer University and a graduate certificate in Public Administration from Clemson University. He is a graduate of the 267th session of the FBI National Academy and the 23rd session of the North Carolina Justice Academy's Management Development Program.

Major Eury lives in Concord with his wife. In his time off, he enjoys attending sporting events, playing golf, riding bicycles and traveling with his wife.
